Chapter 1 by Nabel Wahedi

Red knew that he had to have a partner. So he picked Ian. He knew that together, they were smart, agile and quick. That are the exact characteristics that he needed to carry out his plan.

Ian walked into Red's room. Red was watching the latest news episode.

"Breaking News! The President has been hearing rumors of an assassination attempt on him. The capital is now on high alert and will not be accepting visitors for the next month. This is channel 242 news, signing off."

Red groaned.

"This plan will never succeed if the capital is on high alert."

"It won't, but only if we have crappy equipment," Ian explained.

Ian dragged a briefcase onto Red's desk. He opened it as he saw exactly what he wanted. Armor. Black as tar and looked impossible to find. There were two silenced five sevens and a pair of knives
